YOUNG'S CELEBRATED

Y. P. M. COFFEE,

I beg leave to introduce to your notice the above substitute for Coffee, YOUNG'S PURE MALT, the greatest and most economizing substitute for Coffee in the world. It is made from pure selected grain, and malted in the Malt House under our own supervision. Previous to malting, the grain passes thro' a Patent Revolving Screen, separating it from all impurities. In offering it to the public, I do so with a firm conviction that it is the Most Healthy Substitute in the Market.

This Coffee requires less sweetening on account of the saccharine formed in it by the process of malting.

Over two hundred per cent. is saved by using the Y. P. M. Coffee. For sale by the pound, hundred or ton, at one-fourth the price of Rio, Java or Laguayra Coffee.

TRY IT! TRY IT! TRY IT! Grocers, Boardinghouse keepers, Hotels, Restaurants and Families will find it to their advantage to give it a trial. One trial will prove the truth of the above assertion.

EDITED BY SIMON SYNTAX, ESQ

☞Teachers and friends of education are respectfully requested to send communications to the above care of "Bedford Gazette."

COALMONT, Pa., March 12, 1863.

Simon Syntax, Esq.—

Sir:

In the solution of the wine glass problem, the word conical was inadvertently omitted; and your position that "mathematical problems should be worded with mathematical accuracy," is correct.

Having made these acknowledgements, we will proceed to consider your article somewhat in detail.

You say, "admitting the shape to be conical, there is still another unwarrantable assumption in the solution given by Magnet and by others." "They assume that the sphere must be entirely within the glass." Assumption indeed! is a self evident truth an assumption? If so, then, the axiom that, "Like powers of equal quantities are equal," is also an assumption.

But why is it an assumption to say that, the sphere must be within the glass, or that that fact is self-evident? The former cannot be told—the latter need not be used, for the problem does say plainly say, "when dropped therein."

Will you deny, sir, that the words within and therein, as here used, are synonymous! If you do, then quarrel with the lexicographers, and pile no more "unwarrantable" objections to the conditions of the question; nor "loosely and bunglingly" state them. Passing over one or two unimportant points in your article, I come to your conclusion as follows—"To make their solution complete the following theorem must be demonstrated."

"The solidity of the largest sphere that can be cut from any cone is greater than the solidity of any segment of a larger sphere that can be cut from the same cone."

This is simply nonsense, "loosely and bunglingly" expressed. There is no such theorem—there can be no such theorem—a theorem is a settled truth, and when the largest sphere contained in a cone, has been cut from it, there remains no LARGER sphere to be taken from it.—Your so called theorem, therefore, is a mathematical impossibility, and not a settled truth.

Again—"we do not say whether this theorem is true or not, but we do say that Magnet assumes it to be true." Your pardon, sir, we "assume" no such thing—we are not in the habit of assuming that to be true, which is evidently untrue.

But finally, we do "assume" that, you are unable to prove the solution to be inaccurate, and, safely resting under that assumption, we bid you a friendly good bye.

MAGNET.

We need hardly tell our readers that Magnet's, remarks printed above, are as loose and bungling as the wording of his problem. He omits the word conical in the solution "inadvertently." The word conical should have been in the problem, and being intentionally omitted there, it was very properly omitted in the solution. But Magnet says he omitted it in the solution, inadvertently, thus showing that he escaped a very foolish blunder by his own carelessness.

"Dropped therein," as used in the problem, means simply, dropped in the glass—no more, no less—and the expression "dropped therein" or "dropped in the glass" will not warrant the assumption that the sphere must be entirely within the glass. A larger sphere—say 4 inches in diameter—can be "dropped in the glass," although, only a segment of it will be below the plane of the top of the glass; and this would be as fully in accordance with the language of the problem, as the meaning that "Magnet" supposes. Moreover, if the solidity of this segment be greater than the solidity of the sphere found by Magnet, his result is not, in our opinion, the true one.

But Magnet says, "When the largest sphere contained in any cone has been cut from it, there remains no larger sphere to be taken. We hardly know whether to smile at the gravity with which he states this self-evident truth, or to resent the imputation it contains of our profound ignorance. Of course "there remains no larger sphere to be taken;" but a segment of a larger sphere may be taken, nevertheless. This we said, and in language, too, that we presume no one but Magnet will for a moment misunderstand or misconstrue.

PROBLEM.

A pole 75 feet in height, stands on the side of a hill; at what height from the ground must it be cut off, that the top may fall on a point 20 feet down the hill from the foot of the pole; while a horizontal line drawn from the foot of the pole, and intersecting the part cut off, shall be 15 feet. The end of the pole, where it is to be cut off, resting, of course, on the upright part.

The "Gazette" will be furnished one year free of cost, to any person giving a correct solution of the problem, which shall be purely arithmetical and analytical.

Army Correspondence.

SOMEWHERE IN VIRGINIA,
MARCH 14th, 1863

FRIEND MEYERS:

Perhaps a few lines from one who would while away an hour of idle time, may not come amiss. For the past month or two, we have been tarrying in this portion of the Old Dominion, picketing, scouting, patrolling, skirmishing and waiting for rebel raids into our lines. Winter with its cold chilling winds, bleak snows and dreary nights is about to depart for a while. Spring with its March winds and April showers has dawned, and soon summer with its green fields and bright foliage will be coming on apace; and still we find ourselves on the tented field, the war still progressing, and no prospect yet of its termination. Long ere this we had thought to see peace spread its broad pinions o'er our land, and the soldiers again engaged in the peaceful pursuits of civilized life. Instead of tilling the soil of the Keystone State, as we were wont to do in days gone by, we are wearing tooth picks, and "Colts Patent" by our sides, or carrying the frowning rifle in our hands. Sometimes we find ourselves mounted on a cavalry horse, or astride of one of Uncle Sam's mules shooting at our fellow men and in return being shot at or sleeping in the mud or snow almost knee deep, some of the most chivalrous perhaps dreaming while of the luxury of a colored bride. When we come to sum up the cause for all these proceedings, we are informed that it is for the sake of Africa's dark-hued sons. If curses would serve as winding sheets for the originators of it, there would be no lack of material, as the soldiers would not be chary of their powers with the anathematizing loom. Weary of this protracted war, you may hear many curses, not loud but deep, against conscription and emancipation bills. But hoping that there is a good day coming and not far distant, all should be content and willing to serve their country in her hour of need. Sunnier hours, cheery greetings from loved ones left behind and the welcome kiss from ruby lips may yet be awaiting, many if not all, who are now playing "soger boy." The dull routine of picket duty here is now and then relieved by a rebel raid into Occaquan, a skirmish, the depredations of bushwackers, or Stewart's cavalry and the capturing of our pickets, now and then. To day some of our pickets were taken while on post. A force is now gone out to rout and punish the depredators. Another raid may be attempted soon. Despite their standing in mud up to their knees, for some time, our horses are in good condition. Cavalry horses are never troubled with an overplus of forage. Government allows them six pounds of oats, six pounds of corn and fourteen pounds of hay per diem. Owing to difficulties in transportation or want of it altogether, they are after deprived of a portion or all of this allowance. Being awhile in cavalry will convince the most skeptical that the horse has more powers of endurance than is generally supposed. We have known them to be under the saddle almost constantly night and day, for near or altogether a fortnight, and receive no forage. The majority of army horses are too young and consequently unable to endure the rough treatment they sometimes receive. We expect to move soon, and cheerily will we again welcome the bugle sound of "boots and saddle," heralding to us the march and stranger scenes. Being somewhat of a stranger to you and your readers perhaps I am trespassing too far on your time and patience We wish the "Gazette" success in upholding the democratic principles it advocates. Wishing the good citizens of your town a pleasant summer, I remain,

Yours, &c.,

BEDFORD.

INJUSTICE.

We have been handed a letter from a private of one of the regiments of the "Pennsylvania Reserves," dated Camp near Fairfax Court House, Feb. 16th, which shows very clearly what the Government cares for "patriots" after they become unfit for service, because terribly reduced in number from following the gyrations and wild-goose chases into which they are led by the asses yclept Generals, placed over them as leaders. We will let him tell his own story. He says:—

"Since I wrote last, we have been withdrawn from the army before Fredericksburg, and transferred to our present position (near Fairfax Court House.) We thought we were to remain about Washington or Alexandria to rest, and to recruit our broken ranks. At least such was the order when we left to come here. But instead of that they brought us to Alexandria and encamped us on a barren hill, outside the city, for several days in the cold and rain, and then sent us out in a worse place than the one we left at Fredericksburg, and even wanted us to do more duty than was done at that place. This the regiment has refused to do, and we are now all under arrest for refusing to go on seven day's picket duty. We have been shamefully treated, and we believe it is the fault of our Brigadier General. I really believe, but I do not know, that it was the intention of the department at Washington that we should do duty about there."

☞A Western editor, on hearing it remarked that persons in a drowning condition suddenly recollected all the transactions of their lives, wished that a few of his delinquent subscribers would take to bathing in deep water.

THE GROUND HOG.—The ground hog has this year again vindicated his character as a weather prophet. On the particular day set apart for his prognostications of the weather, his hogship stuck out his nose, saw the sun shining, and retired for another long snooze. Since then there have been many attempts to commence spring. The blue birds and robbins have attempted to take possession in the name of the coming spring, but had a cold time of it.

On Old Men and Young Men.

Juventus pœnitentiæ campus.

"Youth is the field for the seeds of repentance."
Lord Bacon.

There are some people in the church (not the Lay portion only thereof) who have got it into their heads, that none but very young men are fit to be bishops and rulers in conducting its affairs, contrary to the fashion of the good "olden times." Likewise the stately beardless boys and inexperienced youth, now-a-days, will only suit the country for its highest posts of honor and usefulness. Our masters and electors, at the head of affairs, are unwittingly, in their extravagant desire for young rulers, prelates and potentates, realizing the designs of a mysterious Providence, as they are disclosed, by prophetic oracles: "And I will give children to be their princes and babes shall rule over them"—Josiah, chapter III.

Who is Francis Joseph of Austria?—who is the Bourbon coward and tyrant of Naples, as he is called? Are they not young men? And who is (as he is styled) the liberator and hero of Italy! before whom they are trembling or flying?—is it not the veteran warrior, Garibaldi? Who was the late President of the United States—who was the secretary of State—who was the late commander-in-Chief of our armies? Who is the present Chief Justice of the United States—who is the present British Premier—who rules over an empire on which the sun never sets—who was Pellissier? Are all these young men—the conquerers in the Crimean war?

"A man that is young in years" says a great author "may be old in honors, if he has lost no time; but this happeneth rarely."

"There is a youth in thoughts as well as in ages," says Bacon. Many young men in office once put into place and power are "old fogies" all their life-time. Many old men are for progress and abhor old fogies, young or old. To the admirers of youth and boys for dignities in Church or State we recommend the following facts which have appeared in a sensible article of a late paper:

Rev. Dr. Baird, referring in a recent letter to a biographical sketch of the late Robert Walsh, prepared in Paris, by Mr. Jomard, says:—"I have said that Mr. Jomard must now be an old man, but perhaps I ought to take that back—for men in France and Europe generally are not as old at eighty as we are at sixty. Humboldt at four score was not beyond his prime, and Lord Palmerston at three score and fifteen scarcely begins to think of being old. We live too fast in this country."

We do live rather fast in this country, but many of us live long, too. We believe that our average of longevity is as high as that of any other country, while individual instances can be found that are truly remarkable. We continually hear about Humboldt, Palmerston and Lord Lyndhurst, but we are apt to forget that their parallels can not be unfrequently found among us. Boston daily sees the venerable Quincy in the enjoyment of all his faculties, at the age of 87; and Massachusetts is proud of the rulings and decisions of her Chief Justice, now (if we may be allowed the expression) high up in the seventies. At the Yale commencement, the other day, none failed to remark the form of Professor Silliman, still upright and active under the burden of 80 years; and in our report of the Fort Point Celebration in Maine, last week, we gave an account of a grand meeting presided over by a hale old man of 91.

Of our literary men, Irving has just finished the life of Washington, at the age of 76, Paulding is 80, and Richard H. Dana is 72. The list of this department, and in those of the professions, might be greatly extended. But let us turn to public life, which, perhaps, makes the greatest draft upon all powers of the system.—Ex President Van Buren, who has gone through the whole mill, is well and hearty at the age of 77. We have known in the Presidential chair a man of 70, who boasts that he is healthier than his Cabinet, of which, however, the leading member, in the Department of State, is 77. The actual Commander-in-Chief of our armies is 73; and yet if it were called into battle, no man would be thought worthy to take his place. Our Chief Justice is 82; but he works like a clerk, and one of his late decisions, we fear, is to be impressed upon the whole future of our national history. But we need recite no further instances of aged men actively employed in this country. We have done enough to show that Dr. Baird's remark does not admit of two hasty acceptance. Let us not discredit ourselves too readily. Perhaps we live in general, quite as long as we ought to, considering our multiplied violations of physiological laws, but the vital fibre in this country is amazingly tough. —Boston Journal.

Are the prelates and rulers who have been elected when they were young, willing to resign, when they become old; if they are, then it is fairplay, elect the young, if they will resign when they become old, according to the standard of our juveniles. Then all is right, "What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander" as a great politician has said. Let the incumbents who have got into office political or prelatical on the plea of their youth, resign, when they reach 50 or 60 years and they will prove their sincerity.

QUÆRE.

DIRTY.—A wise father once endeavored to teach his son the nature of an inference.—"Thus, for example," said he, "when we read that the deluge covered the whole earth the inference is that the inhabitants thereof were all drowned. Now Naaman, the Syrian, was commanded to wash seven times in the Jordan—what inference would we draw from that?" "That he must have been very dirty!" was the precocious one's answer.

☞Collector Barney, of New York, receives $80,000 per year, besides stealings.

HABEAS CORPUS.

In order to show what great principles of human freedom have been assassinated by the passage of Thad. Stevens' indemnifying bill, we have only to say that it virtually authorizes the President to strike down the writ of habeas corpus. The importance of this writ may be gathered from the following opinions of men learned in the law.

CHIEF JUSTICE BLACKSTONE SAYS:

"Next to personal security," says Mr. Justice Blackstone," the law of England regards, asserts and preserves the personal liberty of individuals. This personal liberty consists in the power of locomotion, of changing situation or moving one's person to whatsoever place one's own inclinations may direct, without imprisonment or restraint, unless by due course of law.

"By the Petition of Right, 3 Car. 1st. it is enacted that no person shall be imprisoned or detained without cause shown, to which he may make answer according to law. By Car. 1st, ch. 10, if any person be restrained of his liberty by order or decree of of any illegal court or by the command of the King's Majesty in person, or by warrant of the council he shall, upon demand of his counsel, have a writ of habeas corpus to bring his body before the Court of King's Bench or Common Pleas, who shall determine whether the cause of his commitment be just, and thereupon to do as to justice shall appertain.

"To berave a man of life or by violence to confiscate his estate without accusation or trial would be so gross and notorious an act of despotism as must at once convey the alarm of tyranny throughout the whole kingdom, but confinement of the person by secretly hurrying him to jail where his sufferings are unknown or forgotten is a less public, a less striking and therefore a more dangerous engine of arbitrary government.— And yet sometimes, when the State is in real danger, even this may be a necessary measure. But the happiness of the Constitution is that it is not left to the Executive power to determinne when the danger of the State is so great as to render this measure expedient; for it is the Parliament only, or legislative power that, whenever it sees proper, can authorize the Crown, by suspending the habeas corpus act for a short and limited time, to imprison suspected persons without giving any reason for so doing." —Commentaries on the Laws of England, Vol. 1, pp. 135—136.

WHAT CHIEF JUSTICE MARSHALL SAYS.

So our own Chief Justice Marshall in the case of Bollman, 5 Cranch, 100, says:—"If at any time the public safety should require the suspension of the power vested in this act, (the power to grant writs of habeas corpus) in the Courts of the U. S., it is for the Legislature to decide.—Until the Legislative will be expressed, this Court can only see its duty, and must obey the laws." This was in a case of treason.

WHAT JUDGE STORY SAYS.

So Judge Story, in his Commentaries on the Constitution, sec. 1336, says: "It would seem as the power is granted to Congress to suspend the writ of habeas corpus in case of rebellion or invasion, that the right to judge whether the exigency had arisen must exclusively belong to that body."

So in 1807, when great alarm existed as to Burr's conspiracy, a bill was brought before the Senate in secret session to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. When brought into the House of Representatives, that body refused to consider it in secret session, and by a vote of 131 to 19 rejected the bill on its first reading. On that occasion Mr. Dana, of Connecticut, used the following language: "This bill authorizes the arrest of persons not merely by the President or other high officers, but by any person acting under him. I imagine this to be wholly without precedent. If treason was marching to force us from our seats, I would not agree thus to destroy the fundamental principles of the Constitution, or commit such an act either of despotism or pusilanimity."

WHAT JUDGE CURTIS SAYS.

Judge Curtis says: "Whence then do those edicts of the President spring? They spring from the assumed power to extend martial law over the whole U. S.; a power for the exercise of which there is no warrant whatever in the Constitution; a power which no people could confer upon an executive officer and remain a free people. For it would make him absolute master of their lives, their liberties, and their property.

* * * Let us beware how we borrow weapons from the armory of arbitrary power. They cannot be wielded by the hands of a free people. Their blows will finally fall upon themselves. Distracted councils, divided strength are the very earliest effects of an attempt to use them. What lies beyond no patriot is now willing to look upon."

☞An amusing incident transpired a few evenings since, at Manchester, New Hampshire, in the Huntingdon Street Baptist Church, on the occasion of the magic lantern exhibition. The scene of the children of Israel crossing the Red Sea was exhibited, and the small children were asked if they could tell what it represented. One little fellow immediately sang out, "Burnside crossing the Rappahannock!"

IT IS STATED that Gen. Fremont is to return "to active service in the same capacity as before." —If he must return at all, Prentice wishes it might be with greater capacity.

☞The Village Record, a Black Republican paper, says "The golden opportunity for putting down the rebellion is past." That's so: but there seems to be a greenback opportunity left.—Jeffersonian.

THE CRY OF "STOP THIEF."—The Abolitionized "Republicans" know that they deceived the people, when at the commencement of the war, they assured them that armies were not being raised for the abolishment of slavery, and that the war was to be waged only for the restoration of the Union. Hence, when the poor, weary, diseased and worn out soldier deserts in order to visit his starving wife and children, these miserable political hucksters, (feeling that on them rests the blame for the discontent which caused him to leave the army) in order to screen their own guilt from public observation, raise the cry that the "Copperheads" and those whom they term "Secession Sympathizers," are the cause of desertion. But the people know that the Abolitionists alone are in the fault. They got men to enlist by telling them that they were not to fight to free the negro, but only for the Union. They have broken their word with those men and are now trying to compel them to fight for the freedom of the negro. That is the reason why there is so much desertion.—The cry of "stop thief!" will not do in this case.

DOWNRIGHT FALSIFICATION.—The Abolition organ around the corner tells a deliberate falsehood when it says that its party friends carried their whole ticket in East Providence tp., at the late Spring Elections,(with the exception of two Inspectors) "by a hundred and ten or twenty majority." The Abolition majority in that tp. has been cut down to 50 and 60 for the different township officers, whilst their inspectors have each, only five or six majority over the Democratic candidate. The highest Abolition vote polled was only 110, whilst the Democratic vote was 45, as large as is generally polled at State elections. The Organ also claims "loyal gains" in West Providence, Middle and South Woodbury and Union! It must mean Democratic gains, for in all of those townships the Democrats have done better than they have for years. Try another "load of poles," Wheelbarrow! This one is rather loose!

MADAME DEMOREST'S MIRROR OF FASHION.—We are in receipt of this excellent work on the fashions, and must concede it the palm for thoroughness and reliability. It is beautifully gotten up, being finally and profusely embellished with colored plates of the fashions, in the best style of engraving. Madame Demorest's patterns, accompanying the book, form a novel, but very important and useful feature of the work. If our fair readers desire a good fashion book, let them send at once for "Demorest's Miror."

HOWARD HOUSE, BALTIMORE.—This well known and popular hotel has passed into the hands of COL. W. G. REAMER, under whose proprietorship it will be greatly improved in many important particulars. We hope that such of our friends as may visit Baltimore, will do themselves the favor of stopping at the Howard.

☞Whenever you hear of Abolition talk from the Army, depend on it that it comes from some fellow who expects promotion or who is feathering his nest by tickling the political prejudices of the War Department. There are plenty of miserable creatures in the army (as well as elsewhere) who would sell every principle they ever had (and then would not part with much) for a few hundred dollars in greenbacks. We admire and love the honest, straight-forward soldier who does his duty because he thinks it is done for the good of his country; but we have quite a different opinion of the fellow who writes home that he believes in exterminating the people of the South, men, women and children, and adds a postscript stating that he has been promoted to some petty little office.

☞The House of Representatives at Harrisburg has passed a bill to prevent the immigration of negroes into this state. The same body has also passed resolutions protesting against the tyrannical and unconstitutional acts of the President of the United States. Of course neither of these movements will go through the Abolitionized Senate. The people of Pennsylvania will regenerate that branch of the legislature at the next election.

☞Our old friend E. M. Fisher, familiarly known as "Cheap John," is about to establish a general variety and shoe store, in the room recently occupied by J. B. Magill, and formerly used as a store room by Sam'l. Brown, dec'd. We have no doubt that Mr. Fisher's store will be quite an addition to the merchandising business of our place and hope that he will receive his share of public patronage.

We have received several numbers of the new Democratic Morning daily, just started in Philadelphia by A. J. Glossbrenner & Co., entitled "The Age." It is edited with much ability and is neatly and tastefully printed. We doubt not that "The Age" will prove a valuable accession to the newspaper press of the country.

☞A corruption fund of $50,000 has been raised in New York, to enable the Abolitionists to carry Connecticut.

☞We have received from John Fulton, Esq., the able Engineer of the H. & B. T. R. R. Co., several copies of a miniature map of the Broad Top Coal Region. It is very well executed and is, no doubt, entirely correct. Mr. Fulton will please accept our thanks for this and many other kind favors.

☞We are in receipt of the "Johnstown Democrat," a new paper, published by our friend Jas. F. Campbell, Esq., lately of the Westmoreland Republican. Campbell is a good editor and a "clever fellow." May his shadow never grow less!

☞Our Monroe friend will be welcome to our columns, when he divests his communications of personalities. His article is well written, but is entirely too personal. We will be glad to hear from him in a different strain.

☞Fitzroy's article, though well written and containing more truth than poetry, connot appear, as the author did not give us his real name, an indispensable requisite to insure publication.

☞Messers. Cessna and Hopkins, of the House, and Mr. Stutzman, of the Senate, will please accept our thanks for valuable documents.

Letter from Little Berks.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY,
MARCH 30th, 1863.

Mr. Meyers:—

I happened, by accident, one day last week, to obtain a copy of that precious illuminator of the "political horizon," yclept the Bedford Inquirer. After perusing a letter contained in said paper, purporting to have been written at "Camp Humphreys, near Falmouth, Va.," and filled with two columns of stuff and venom, I came to the conclusion that "John Smith"—although known all over the universe—was no longer the great man of the great Smith family; for the name of the writer of that letter is Albert Smith, and he, surely, must be the great man of all the Smiths. Why, doesn't he look down with lofty disdain on Geo. B. McClellan and call him "Chuffy Mac?" And doesn't he call Democrats "Copperheads," and glorify the nigger and besmear Abe Lincoln with praise? And isn't that enough to make a great man of any body? But we here in the valley know Albert Smith to be a great man. He always was a great liar, a great slanderer, a great reporter of untruths for the Bedford Inquirer, a great know nothing, a great nigger-lover, a great "blowhorn" generally, and now, I doubt not, he is a great soldier, though some of his enemies do say that he "skulked" on a certain occasion when it was more for his bodily comfort to do so than to do what he ought to have done. Of course, Albert doesn't get any pay for his fighting. Great men fight only for glory and for their equals—the niggers. As Albert is a great man, of course he considers you, Mr. Editor, only "a thing." I quote from his letter:

"Citizens of Bedford county, be careful how you handle 'that thing' in the 'Tory office,' which is a legislator in embryo. It will ruin your reputation as a people, destroy your liberties and disgrace your state. For God's sake keep all such characters out of our legislative councils. Surely the boasted Democracy of Bedford county has not become so degenerate as to degrade themselves and the party they represent by taking such men as their standard bearers—men who are dripping with rotten stench of treason—men whose every act has been in support of treason at home and abroad."

There you have it, Mr. Editor! Gen. McClellan is "Chuffy Mac," you are "a thing" and Albert Smith is a great man! I do hope, Mr. Editor, that you will not decline being a candidate, merely to alleviate Albert's anxiety for the "boasted Democracy." True, he has always been very anxious about the fate of that party, being one of the corporal's guard in this township, who have prayed for years to see its end, but still my dear sir, we can't always, do every thing to please our friends. So you just stay on the track, let hypocrites howl on, and keep an eye single to Democracy and we'll show Albert Smith when the time comes, how much we'll take his advice or that of any other hare-brained Abolitionist.

Yours,
EYE-OPENER.

Rebel Accounts.

LAKE CITY, Fla., March 10.—The Federal gunboats and two transports came up the St. Johns river to Jacksonville this morning, and landed a force of negro troops, throwing out pickets as far as the brick yard a mile and a half. Our troops are being moved within three miles of the town, and a fight is expected in the morning.

LAKE CITY, Fla., March 11—Our forces attacked the enemy near Jacksonville this morning at 9 o'clock. After hard fighting for 20 minutes we charged them, when they retreated in haste to their gun-boats. Our infantry pursued them into town, and when near the Judson Square encountered another force of the enemy, which was also driven back. One man and three horses killed on our side. Loss of the enemy not known. We captured a set of surgical instruments, which showed signs of recent use. Numbers engaged not known.

Repulse of Gen. Banks' Advance---Capture of Two Federal Regiments.

Correspondence of the Boston Courier.

NEW ORLEANS, March 14.—Before this reaches you, you will probably learn from "Southern sources" the repulse of Banks' advance, about twelve miles from Baton Rouge, of the force under Col. Dudley, and his loss of two regiments.—Such is the uncontradicted rumor. The publication of such news here is contrabandr. Col. Skymurzky, of the Confederate army, came in yesterday under a flag of truce with some 350 paroled Federals. A similar number will be brought in a few days from across Lake Ponchartrain, supposed to be part of Dudley's command. Some of the old Bostonians may remember Skymurzsky as the handsome 6½ feet young Polander, who came to Boston about thirty years ago, after his exile from Poland. The sturdy Rebel will be remembered by the old belles and Tremonters of those bygone days.

Rebel Movement in Arkansas.

ST. LOUIS, March 36.—A gentleman direct from Fayetteville, Arkansas, says the Little Rock True Democrat of the 16th announses the arrival of Gen. Price at that point, who would soon take the field with Hindman's army. The same gentleman says that Gen. Cabell is collecting the scattered Rebel forces north of the Arkansas river, evidently with the design of operating against our troops in that section.

The Invasion of Kentucky.

CINCINNATI, March 25.—The Rebel force which has occupied Danville, Kentucky, is believed to be the Advance of Longstreet's division. Their coming is not unexpected. They will be promptly met. Several thousand troops will arrive to-day, and more coming. Look out for an active campaign in Kentucky.

General Burnside is hourly expected. A large number of his troops have arrived and have been despatched to threatened points.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—The Concord Patriot gives complete returns from each of the four counties in the first congressional district. They sum up as follows: Marcy dem., 12,060; Eastman, rep., 11,980—majority for Marcy 80 votes.

Soldiers' Special Notice.—Do your duty to yourselves, protect your health, use HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT. For Wounds, Sores, Bowel Complaints and Fevers, they are a perfect safeguard. Full instructions how to use them with every box. 211

FYAN.—On Friday, the 20th of March, at the residence of her brother, Mr. Lewis Fyan, Harman's Bottom, Bedford Co., departed this life, in the 80th year of her age, Mary Ann Fyan, sister of Robert Fyan, merchant of this place.

The deceased was a native of Dublin, Ireland and was the eldest of the Fyan Family. In the year 1828, she came to this country, chiefly to console and alleviate in his exile, her venerable father, who was one of the first to inscribe his name on the roll of those noble patriots who joined their fortunes to the illustrious O'Connell, in the beginning of his career. The decensed lady was distinguished for piety, charity and for all the virtues which mark the course of the truly righteous in the church of God. She was extremely generous and liberal to the poor. She exhibited the greatest zeal in adorning the House of God. She was a true member of the Roman Catholic Church, received in her illness all its rites and consolations and fully corresponded to all the hopes of her noble race. Her remains according to her request, were brought down from Harman's Bottom, and consigned to their long home in the Catholic Cemetery of Bedford by her sorrowing brothers Robert and Lewis Fyan accompanied by a vast multitude of sympathizing relations, friends and well wishers. Children owe much to their Sickness to Colds.—No matter where the disease may appear to be seated, its origin may be traced to suppress perspiration or a Cold. Croups and Lung Complaints are direct products of Colds. In short Colds are the harbingers of half the diseases that afflict humanity, for as they are caused by checks perspiration, and as five-eights of the waste matter of the body escapes through the pores, if these pores are closed, that portion of diseases necessarily follows. Keeps clear, therefore, of Colds and Coughs, the great precursers of disease, or if contracted, break them up immediately, by a timely use of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam. Sold by all Druggists, at 13 cents and 25 cents per bottle.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, Rheumatic Disorders of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has been used it has never been known to fail.

FOR NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES.—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINSY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.

All who have friends and relatives in the army or navy, should take especial care, that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave soldiers and sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

Coughs and Colds Affecting Troops,

Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the directions which are attached to each pot or box.

Sick Headache and Want of Appetite, Incidental to Soldiers,

Those feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

Weakness or Debility induced by over Fatigue,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable pills, and the soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

Volunteers Attention! Indiscretions of Youth

Sores and ulcers, blotches and swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

For Wounds either occasioned by the Bayonet, Sabre or the Bullet, Sores or Bruises,

To which every soldier and sailor are liable, there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all round it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation.

Every soldier's knapsack and seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable remedies.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cts, and $1 each.

☞There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.
